

NEW MOTIONS 2017-2018

- This house believes pets cause arguments in families
- This house believes pigs are smarter than mules
- This house believes employers should be allowed to use random drug testing on employees
- This house believes at the end of every class students should have a legal right to give the teacher opinions about that class
- This house believes parkour should be banned
- This house believes world chase tag should be introduced to the school sports programme
- This house believes television violence affects society
- This house believes in a complete ban for the development of soldier killer robots
- This house believes politicians should tell the truth
- This house believes you won't learn much in life without a sense of adventure
- This house believes you can never be too ambitious
- This house believes parents should need licences for child-rearing
- This house believes skinheads are unfairly demonised in society
- This house believes William Shakespeare is the greatest writer of all time
- This house believes scientists should be held responsible for how their inventions are used
- This house believes that loyalty is more important than honesty
- This house believes that competition is more important than cooperation
- This house believes that freedom of press is more important than national security
- This house believes that equality is more important than individualism
- This house believes that order is more important than freedom of speech
- This house believes that security is more important than entertainment
- This house believes that generosity is more important than material success
- This house believes that tradition is more important than fashion
- This house believes that you should tell your parents about your sister's drug habit
- This house believes that we should imprison anyone with radical ideas
- This house believes that you should choose a dangerous profession and have an exciting life
- This house believes that divorce should be made really easy